Report of Virtual Alumni Meet 2021

DES's NMITD had virtually organised an Alumni Meet using Ms-Teams platform on Saturday 30th January 2021. The aim of the alumni meet was to connect with the alumni to maintain long term association with the alumni working in different fields. To make them aware about the growth of the Institute, students achievements and faculties contribution in the field of technology and management.

Dr. Samadhan Khamkar, Director DES's NMITD, in his address expressed gratitude on overwhelming response from the alumni. He explained the importance of being flexible and accommodative during the challenging situations like pandemic. Appreciated the work of some of the alumni's as COVID-19 warriors and promised to extend all kind of moral support.

Dr. Rasika Mallya, Associate Director DES's NMITD, expressed her happiness about the accomplishments of the Institute like, faculty upgradations, students' achievements in various certification examinations, domain specific placements opportunities. She discussed further milestones like Research & Development cell, NBA accreditation process, various teaching and learning activities and, new MoUs and linkages to grow in spite of prevailing pandemic.

For this online program the invitation was given by the alumni committee to the alumni through personal email, WhatsApp messages and through phone calls. During the pandemic through online meet we could connect not only with the local employed alumni but also with the alumni who were employed across the globe. Alumni's from different batches attended the meet. Many of the alumni of DES's NMITD are in very good position in reputed organizations like TCS, L&T, Capgemini, BNP Paribas, NSEIT, HDFC ergo, NSDL e-Governance Infrastructure Limited, Kotak Securities, E-Emphasys Systems, Cymetrix Software etc.. Some of our alumni are perusing further studies across the globe in state Universities like California, Canada, Boston to name a few.

The Alumni meet session was concluded by alumni discussions and experience sharing. Some of the alumni expressed their views about the Institute's growth, their willingness to extend support in kind, donations, placements, guest sessions and continuous association to their Alma mater.
